

Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund
Emergency Financial Aid Grants to Students

USDOE AWARD P425E202116

HEERF I/CARES Act
HEERF II/CRRSAA Act
HEERF III/ARP

Quarterly Report #7 – 04/07/2022

The information reported below meets the reporting requirements under Section 18004(e) of the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act, 2020 (CARES Act), Section 314(e) of the Coronavirus Response and Relief Supplemental Appropriations Act, 2021 (CRRSAA), and Section 2300 (a)(1) of the American Rescue Plan Act, 2021 (ARP).

1. Eastern Florida State College (EFSC) acknowledges that the institution (a)2.7 (c)1.1 TJ0.001 Tc -0.001 Tw 22.326 0 Td((1)-

Eligible students could also apply via EFSC's online student portal for grants of up to $500 per student to assist with expenses due to the disruption of campus operations. Students enrolled in Spring 2020 and Summer 2020 classes could apply from May 2020 through September 2020. Students enrolled in Fall 2020 classes could apply from September 2020 through December 2020.

The following methodology was used during the Spring 2021 term:

Pell-eligible students received grants ranging from $250 to $1,000. Grants were prorated based on enrollment levels. Pell-eligible students were prioritized with larger grants.

Non Pell-eligible students enrolled in degree and certificate programs who met Title IV citizenship requirements, excluding dual-enrolled students, received grant ranging from $150-$600. Grants were prorated based on enrollment levels.

Non-degree students who met Title IV citizenship eligibility requirements received grants ranging from $100-$400. Grants were prorated based on enrollment levels.

The following methodology was used during the Summer 2021 term:

Pell-eligible students received awards ranging from $250 to $1,000. Grants were prorated based on enrollment levels.

Non Pell-eligible students enrolled in degree and certificate programs, excluding dual-enrolled students, received grants ranging from $150 to $600. Grants were prorated based on enrollment levels.

Non-degree students, excluding dual-enrolled students, received $100-$400. Awards were prorated based on enrollment levels.

The following methodology was used during the Fall 2021 and Spring 2022 terms:

Pell-eligible students received $100 per credit hour of enrollment. Clock hour students received $1,000.

Non Pell-eligible students enrolled in degree and certificate programs, excluding dual-enrolled students, received $75 per credit hour of enrollment. Clock hour students received $500.

Non-degree students, excluding dual-enrolled students, received $50 per credit hour.

7. Students could access the Emergency Financial Aid Grant application on the landing page in the student portal upon logging into myEFSC to apply for grants during the application periods. EFSC notified students about thcen1 Td848